

Casting Your Vision
Skip Bell, April 19, 2005
What Vision Does for the Church

Cast vision from the heart.

Martin Luther King was a tremendous vision caster.

Write down as to what you see and hear about vision-casting.

Acknowledged the difficulties

Used poetry of depiction

Repetition

The cause of freedom

Used Bible as authority, power, and basis—there was a trust

Painted pictures of memory

Referred to common songs

Inclusive/embraced others

Cadence

Looked at the people

Personal passion

Spoke to America history

Location was bully pulpit: chose that spot

Together: moved from I to we

Courage of commitment (speaking to governor of Alabama, lips dripping with hatred)

Knows the sacrifice

ML King wasn't alone, but the leaders stood with him