AS CHRISTIAN MINISTRY

the national conference on mentoring
MARCH 30-APRIL 1, 2006
DENVER COLORADO

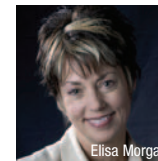

How does mentoring relate to Christian ministry? "Mentoring" is now a household word. Mentoring initiatives have emerged across our society. Christians, too, have embraced the language and promise of mentoring. BUT...What unique resources, challenges, and opportunities confront Christians as they to minister through mentoring? Are you beginning to explore mentoring? Launching a mentoring ministry? Seeking creative insights and tools? Whatever your interest and experience in mentoring, you will find fresh vision and resources for engaging mentoring in your Christian ministry.

Conference begins Thursday evening with a banquet at the Hotel Denver Tech and runs through Saturday noon on the Denver Seminary campus. An optional Thursday afternoon session at Denver Seminary will explore the possibility of launching an international Christian mentoring association.

plenary speakers

Dr. James M. Houston, former president of Regent College in Vancouver, B.C. and author of The Mentored Life (NavPress).

Elisa Morgan, president of MOPS, International and editor of Mom, You Make a Difference (Revell).

Ted Travis, founder and director of Neighborhood Ministries and pastor of Jubilee Community Church in Denver, CO.
