Personal Vision Statements

Examples in Leadership
“The soul never thinks without a picture.”

Aristotle
“They be blind leaders of the blind, and if the blind lead the blind, both shall fall into the ditch.”

Matt. 15:14
Examples of visionary leadership

In groups of four, please study the person on your sheet of paper.
- What was their vision
- How did they accomplish their vision
- What were the outcomes of their vision
We cannot lead others if we do not understand where we ourselves are going!

Where are you heading?
What do you want to be doing in 10 years?
Mission vs. Vision

- Mission statements describe why you are here.
- Vision statements describe what you hope to become.
Why write a personal vision statement?

- It can help you succeed
- It can lead to a more satisfied life
- It can help you get the most out of relationships and experiences
- It serves as a focus for prioritizing activities
- It can propel you to reach your dreams
What is a personal vision statement?

- What you want to be and do
- What you want to think and know
- Who you want to be associated with
- The impact you want to have on your family
- The impact you want to have on society
- A visual picture of what you hope to be in the future
Five Components of a Vision Statement:

- It attracts commitment and is energizing
- It creates meaning in a person's life
- It establishes a standard of excellence
- It bridges the present to the future
- It transcends the status quo
Example of a personal vision statement:

I am more physically fit, almost finished with my formal education, actively involved in two close personal relationships, worshipping and serving God regularly, having fun every day and making at least 75% as much money as now doing work that I love.
