The church has an essential role
The pastor has an essential role
The Holy Spirit has the critical role

Just what can we do then to be most effective in helping our organization/churches as a body to feel a passion-stirring vision in their hearts?

Here is a pathway for developing shared vision....
Doesn't mean you must all do something this way.

Let's consider a process for developing shared vision...
Let this come alongside your experience.

The word that is important here is shared.

One of the key opportunities we have to develop shared vision is as we plan.

If you divorce spiritual gifts ministry from this process, then the potential is there for dangerous power in the hand of the pastor.
